

Central New Jersey Chapter 093 Newsletter

Welcome to the second edition of the ASIS International Central New Jersey Chapter Newsletter. The intent of this newsletter is to bring timely information and recognition for the events going on in the Chapter and across the Society as a whole. We hope to deliver this newsletter on a quarterly basis and welcome any and all suggestions for both format and content. Please send any contributing material for the newsletter via email to: asiscnj@gmail.com.

Inaugural Golf Outing a Success

Belle Meade, NJ– Water and other beverages were plentiful on the hot May 26th day as Mattawang Golf Club played host to the Central proceeds will go to support the Nicholas Abbaticola Student Scholarship Fund. Just under $2000 was raised. Thank you to all of the participants. In addition, we would also like to thank our two sponsors: SDS Security as a Gold level sponsor and Marion Security Agency as a Hole sponsor. The day was capped off with an evening barbecue and prize ceremony. In addition to the many prize items given away, assorted autographed sports memorabilia was auctioned off at the silent auction. The Chapter would also like to thank Sean Halpin, Izabela Pelszynska and Frank Sottile for all of their help with the registration and check in process. The event proved to be a big success and we certainly look forward to planning the second annual golf outing next year. We certainly welcome all comments and suggestions for improving the event in the future. A special thanks to Roe Manghisi for organizing the event, putting together golfer gift bags and donating prizes.

Spring Meeting Summary/Thank you to our speakers

Spring Meeting Recap-

A busy spring was kicked off with our January meeting getting postponed a day and hosted by Sergeant First Class, John O'Rourke, CPP author of Jersey Troopers, Sacrifice at the Altar of Public Service. John's presentation covered the early years of the New Jersey State Police covered in his book. Lt. Jeffrey Fitzhenry of the New Jersey State Police concluded the meeting with a tour of the New Jersey Regional Operations and Intelligence Center (ROIC).

The February meeting was hosted at Dow Jones in South Brunswick, NJ where the ASIS 3 part webinar series on Organizational Resilience was presented.

The March meeting was hosted by AT&T in Middletown, NJ with speaker Chief Michael Paquette (ret.) discussing Leadership and Organizational Culture.

The April meeting was hosted at the PSE&G Training Facility in Edison, NJ and featured Cynthia Hetherington discussing Advanced Internet and Social Network Investigations.

We would like to thank all of our speakers and hosts for their support of our Chapter and ASIS International.

Certification Update

New Brunswick, NJ- Chapter Treasurer Stephen Molinelli, CPP and Rutgers University Administration and Public Safety hosted the Chapter Certified Protection Professional (CPP) Certification Review Class from January 26th through April 18th. 32 prospective test takers began the class after a weather cancellation forced the class to start one week late. A total of 26 completed the class. The CPP curriculum was covered with lessons each week covering the topics of Security Principles and Practices, Information Security, Investigations, Legal Aspects, Crisis Management, Personnel Security, Business Principles and Practices and Physical Security. Students were also given a pre test, mid term and final to judge their progress. We would like to thank some of the additional instructors who covered some of the key topics: Thomas Comerford, CPP (Port Authority of NY/NJ)-Physical Security, Lt. Mark Compatello, CPP (Hoboken Police Department)-Information Security and Vickie Weaver, CPP (Rider University)- Investigations. Good luck to everyone in your preparation for the CPP exam.
